Leaving a Legacy to The Michael Ziegler PRIDE Industries Foundation

Join us in building an inclusive world where people of all abilities have equal access to achieve their employment goals. Your gift will create generations of employment opportunities for people with disabilities.

Since 1966, PRIDE Industries has delivered business excellence while creating sustainable employment opportunities for people with disabilities, military veterans, former foster youth, and trafficking survivors. Through personalized employment services, we help individuals realize their true potential and lead more independent lives.

As part of PRIDE Industries, The Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit. PRIDE Industries' operational surplus pays for all The Foundation's administrative expenses thus, 100% of the donations made to The Foundation is used to fund programs focused on:

- Vocational training
- Workforce education
- Job coaching
- Paid internships
- Job support technology
- I AM ABLE employment helpline

These programs provide employment, access, choice, and support so that individuals of all abilities can realize their career goals, become self-sufficient, and contribute to their communities. All donations may be tax deductible. Check with your accountant and/or tax adviser.
